Cultural Discoveries

Magnificent Ephesus

Magnificent, inspiring, gorgeous, amazing, extraordinary... These are only a few of the words that may describe Ephesus. A visit to Ephesus, one of the largest and best-preserved ancient cities in the world, a vast open-air museum, is a must for those who are interested in archaeology and culture.

A Day Around Halikarnassos City and Peninsula

Bodrum Peninsula, is an excellent area where you can explore charming fishing villages and small beautiful bays of the Aegean Sea as well as historical sites like the harbour of ancient Myndos and Bodrum Castle.

Meet at the Village

Just a short drive from the resort life, you will arrive at Mumcular Village which is famous for its olives, sheep, grains, vegetables and the craft of hand-made carpets. The process is carried out mostly by women, who do everything from sheep shearing, wool spinning, dyeing the wool with natural dyes, through to weaving

Escape to Knidos

Knidos was one of the ancient cities of Caria. The success on architecture, art, and science increased the popularity of the city. The architect of the famous Lighthouse of Alexandria, Sostratos lived in Knidos. The best point of the area is the Temple of Aphrodite where you may see both harbors from above.

Hidden Jewels of Caria

Explore the historical treasures of Milas, built on ancient Mylasa with Roman walls, Byzantine columns, and pre-Ottoman mosques. Uncover the past at lassos, a Roman fishery and port, through its excavations. Visit Herakleia by Lake Bafa amidst the Latmos mountains. Marvel at the solitary Temple of Euromos among fields and trees. Join us for a journey through the legendary landscapes of Caria.

The Fabled Trio

Didyma, Miletos and Priene.. These three neighbouring ancient sites of ancient Ionia had different historical significance; the port of Priene was the first city with a grid plan; Miletos, a port and one of the greatest and richest of all the Greek cities, was even larger than Ephesus; Didyma was an important oracle site of the ancient world.

Wonders of the South

Xanthos was the capital city of the Lycian Federation and its greatest city for most of Lycian history. Xanthos-Letoon is one of the most remarkable archaeological sites in Turkey. For this reason, it has been registered in the UNESCO World Heritage Sites list. Saklikent (Hidden City) Gorge is the second-largest (20 km-long) gorge in Europe, and the longest and deepest gorge in Turkey. It is a spectacular place, with sculpted walls soaring high above
