MAURITIUS

A FRESH, ANIMATED AND EXUBERANT HOLIDAY EXPERIENCE

La Pirogue, situated on Mauritius' sunset coast, breathes authentic Mauritian culture and provides a home-away-from-home for animated travellers wanting to dive deeper into the local culture. The four-star resort resembles a traditional fishing village, with palm-thatched bungalows housing the resort's 248 rooms. Couples and families can pick a cottage to meet their needs, from one of 200 Garden Bungalows or one of 46 Beach Pavilions ideal for families.

Guests residing at La Pirogue have access to all facilities in our neighbouring sister hotel, Sugar Beach (upon reservation).

The Sega is a dance which originated from the ritual music of Madagascar and the mainland of Africa, and it is the Musical Expression of the Mauritian Way of Life: Joy and Liveliness. Originally sung by men and women who had been sold as slaves but whose souls had remained sensitive to music, Sega is these days considered as a folksong which has integrated itself within the framework of our folklore. Around a huge bonfire people won't be able to resist dancing to the beat of these drums.
